OUR MUSEUM KEEPS GROWING

If you haven't visited the museum at 615 D Street recently you are in for a surprise. Many interesting items for display have been donated or loaned for the past few months. Drop in and have a look at the collection. You will enjoy seeing--

The memorial reed pump organ which is so much like the ones we had in our churches.

The old pump, saw, clothes wringer, a kraut stomper, from the farm home of Mrs. Henry J. and Miss Florence Uhrich of Wood River, Nebraska.

A very interesting map in color of the Volga Region in Russia, donated by Jacob Reifschneider.

A replica of a "schlaf bank" (sleeping bench) built by Rev. A. W. Friesen of Henderson, Nebraska, and stain finished by John Whittington, loaned by Ruth M. Amen.

A beautiful silver communion server from the old St. John's church in North Lincoln, donated by Jake Sinner.

A pair of black filz stiefel donated by Harold Bauer.

Plus many more items of interest. We encourage all of you to remember the museum. We promise to take good care of everything that is loaned or donated.

LOTS OF VISITORS AT 615 D STREET

Not a day passes that we don't have unexpected visitors at the museum. We love company and the opportunity to show off the accomplishments of Chapter One. Our guests in the past month have come from Colorado, California, Texas and Wyoming. Lincolmites, some members, some not, also come to visit.

We welcome groups. Several car loads of the residents of the Madonna Professional Care Center will be visiting the museum on November 6. The following week 5 school groups have scheduled visits.

The quilt is being made by Mrs. Martin (Katherine) Roh, a charter member of Chapter One. Your donation of 25 cents for each ticket will put you in line to win this big, beautiful prize and a number of other items to be raffled off at the Broda Dinner on November 14.
