

AHSGR CHAPTER ONE NEWS

Lincoln, Nebraska

November, 1975

THERE'S GOING TO BE A DRAWING

There will be a drawing for some very special prizes at the "Broda" dinner on November 21. Tickets are enclosed and you may participate by sending in a donation--25¢ per ticket--when you mail in your check for a reservation for the dinner. We are following last year's procedure by sending you 8 tickets.

These donations will help to replenish our treasury which was very much depleted for the Sixth Annual Convention held here last June. Since we do not have local dues we rely on fund raising projects to help us with postage, printing of these newsletters, and upkeep costs at the museum.

What are the prizes this year?

1. A beautiful child's quilt with a matching stuffed toy dog. This was donated to Chapter One by Mr. and Mrs. Henry Alt of Covina, Calif., former residents of Lincoln who attended the convention.
2. A lovely "framed" Christmas tree picture made by our own Helen Heuser from sparkling old jewelry. It is a real treasure.
3. A Christmas door ornament with three large bells from the old world--also made and donated by Helen.
4. Three Thanksgiving turkeys just in time for the big family dinner.

Be lucky!! Send us your donation and ticket stubs today.

DID YOU KNOW?

662 members were registered for the sixth international convention held here in June.

The international board met here during the weekend of the Nebraska-Colorado game?

SIXTH ANNUAL "BRODA"--November 21

It's "Broda" time again--that annual feast that is prepared by our own members. It's a day of good fun and fellowship for the workers and it's an evening of good eating for everyone.

Make your reservations early!!
We will need a count by November 17. Tickets are priced at $3.75 for adults and $2.00 for children under 12. No tickets will be sold at the door. Please reserve by sending your check and a self-addressed stamped envelope to:

Mrs. Gerald Willis
219 D Street
Lincoln, Nebraska 68502

Tickets will then be mailed to you promptly.

Remember the date. Why not bring a prospective member?
