90 ATTEND OPEN HOUSE

We had a very successful and beautiful open house on May Day when 90 members and friends visited international headquarters and the museum and then stopped for a period of sociability and refreshments at the Amen home.

If you haven't seen the museum lately you are really missing something. There are many new exhibits. We received some very nice comments from individuals who have been involved with other historical societies and museums.

CONGRATULATIONS, STAN!

One of our members, Stan Linnertz, was elected to the Lincoln Board of Education on May 3. We're proud to have one of our own honored in this way. Stan serves on the chapter public relations committee and is one of our strong boosters on KLIN.

CONVENTION IS AROUND THE CORNER

Have you registered?

Have you made your hotel reservation?

Have you made reservations for your plane trip? We are sorry there weren't enough for the group flight but many members are taking advantage of the freedom fares.

Are you driving to California? Could you take a box or two of books or whatever is needed in San Francisco? Give us a call at 477-4524. We will appreciate your help.

RUNZA ON THE MALL

Thanks to the three Eds--Klein, Schwartzkopf, and Roth and Stan Linnertz we had a very successful weekend at the Arts Festival on the Mall. They were the planners and the whole project couldn't have run more smoothly.

A fine crew turned out at Klein's Bakery to help prepare 1100 runza that were sold. Also for sale were rye bread and noodles made by Ed Roth, all of which turned into a nice profit to help pay for maintaining our museum.

Our appreciation to all who worked at the bakery, at the stand on 15th and N Streets, and in making all the arrangements.

PUT IT ON YOUR CALENDAR

We are told that some people were disappointed to miss the event on the Mall and the May Day celebration. We had information about these in the last Chapter One News.

We suggest that you jot such dates on your calendar so you won't miss out.

CALL HAROLD BAUER, 432-5793, IF YOU CAN HELP WITH MAILINGS.
