Recently a mail vehicle broke down on busy I-80. The mail man pulled the vehicle over to the shoulder, put on the hazard lights, and went to call a garage. After he returned to the truck to wait, a car pulled up in front of him. He assumed someone was stopping to help him. He approached the car. The lady inside rolled down her window and said, "Will you please mail this letter for me?"

Kay Koch

Kay was born May 17th, to Leon and Oleta Harbour of Stella, Nebraska.

Kay attended Southeast Consolidated School at Stella, Nebraska graduating from High School there.

After graduation, she came to Lincoln, attended the Lincoln School of Commerce earning a degree in Secretarial Office Practice. Immediately after graduation, she married Don Koch on October 9, 1971 at the Humboldt, Nebraska Christian Church. This October marked their 23rd year of marriage.

After marriage, she stayed at home, managing the household. After the two boys came along, she operated a day care center for 13 years. This way she was able to attend all of the boy's school functions.

Kay and Don have two boys, Jonathan, 17, now attending Lincoln High, and Jeremy 15, at Park Junior High School, as a ninth grader.

Before coming to AHSGR she worked at Docu-Tech, part time as a microfilm technician. She also worked two years with Tidy Troops, a home cleaning service.

Her husband Don, is a Journeyman glazier for Harding Glass, in Lincoln. He has worked there for 27 years.

Don, at the present, is also involved with constructing an addition to their home. In addition to adding an attached garage, he is also adding a recreation room. As he is doing all the work by himself, it will be sometime before he is finished. As Kay said, "It will be well worth it when it is finished!"

The family is involved with their church, participating in most functions such as the church choir.

Kay is a very handy person to have around if you need to have a cake decorated. Kay also enjoys cooking and shopping!
