

Enclosed is a brochure regarding a proposed motorcoach trip to the International American Historical Society of Germans From Russia convention July 23 -30 1995.. Here is an inexpensive way to travel to Calgary, with sightseeing along the way. Henry (Lefty) Grenemeier is arranging this trip. Please contact Lefty as soon as possible in order that arrangements for the bus, hotel lodgings and the other amenities can be made. His home phone number is 485-1673

Please mark your calendars to include:

1. March 13 Noodle making Help is needed to make noodles. Call Helen Schwartz.- 466-9250
Call Helen too, if you want noodles!

2. March 17 Noodle soup and Chili dinner We have had a good response for this activity, and have done a creditable job not only in preparation, but also in cost. You really can't get a better soup dinner than what the ladies and gentlemen from AHSGR put out. The price is good too! Tickets are $4.00 for adults and $2.00 for children (under 12) if you order from any of the board members you know. If you don't know any board member contact any of the officers listed on the first page of this letter.

3. April 23 Our Chapter meeting at the Chapel! This has always been an inspirational place to hold one of our meetings, and we know it will be the same this year as in years past.

4. May 19-20 The Garage sale Those of you who have something to donate, don't wait until the sale. Give Larry Schenkel a call, 489-3213 . He will make arrangements to come and pick up,(no charge to you).

Don't forget to bring some of your homemade cakes, pies and other goodies for sale.

Shiela Kay Roche

Shiela was born December 31, 1951, in St. Joseph Mercy Hospital at Fort Dodge, Iowa. Her parents were Walter and Monica (Miller) Flaherty.

She was raised on a farm near Pocahontas, Iowa. Her school years were spent in Pocahontas Catholic Grade and High School. After her graduation she attended Spencer School of Business, a branch of the Mankato Commercial College, specializing of business machines and accounting. After graduating, she worked in Spencer, for several firms as a bookkeeper.

On October 16, 1976, she married Jim Roche, who was working for a firm in Cedar Rapids, Iowa.

Jim is from Emmetsburg, Iowa, another small community about 25 miles north of Pocahontas, but the two didn't meet until they were in their 20s.

Soon after their marriage, Jim changed jobs, working for United Fire and Casualty Insurance Co, for 10 years as an underwriter.

Shiela was the accountant for an investment firm named "Tenth Street Associates

In 1989 Jim received a promotion to Certified Property and Casualty underwriter. This promotion was given while the family was at the company convention at Disneyland Hotel in Anaheim, California. With this promotion, the family moved to Lincoln, where Jim continues with United Fire and Casualty.

Sheila and Jim have two daughters, Sarah 15 attends Pius X where she is a freshman; Katie 12, is a sixth grade student at Cathedral School.

Shiela has been involved in Girl Scouts for six years, and continues in the role of Assistant Leader and Service Unit Cookie Chairperson for her area. She also manages the Cathedral School library.

Shiela joined the AHSGR staff in August 1994. as the librarian assistant.. She has also been assisting in the office.

Points to Ponder

"There are no unimportant jobs, no unimportant people, no unimportant acts of kindness".

"Real generosity is doing something nice or someone who'll never find it out".

"Work well done is art".

"Failure is success if we learn from it".
